International Real Estate Society (IRES) Activities

IRES Annual Meeting

This year the society supported the 12th Pacific-Rim Real Estate Society conference held in Auckland, New Zealand, January 22-25. The conference was hosted by the University of Auckland Business School. Program chair, Deborah Levy organized an excellent program. Keynote speakers included Dr Andrew Baum, Professor of Land Management, University of Reading. The second keynote speaker was Sing-cheong Liu, Founder and Managing Director of Pearl River-Hang Cheong Real Estate Consultants Ltd., Hong Kong and Guangzhou, China. In 2007, IRES will be supporting the AsRES annual meeting in Macau, China in July.

IRES Awards:

In 2006, the International Real Estate Society is to present awards at various IRES-Regional Societies annual meetings for achievement in international real estate research, service to the society and corporate leadership. The IRES Achievement Award was presented to Simon Stevenson at the PRRES Annual conference in Auckland, New Zealand in January. The IRES Service Award will be awarded to Paloma Taltavull at the ERES Annual meeting in Weimar, Germany in June and the IRES Corporate Excellence Award will be awarded to the Appraisal Institute at the ARES Annual Meeting in Key, West Florida in April.

Nominations for the 2007 IRES awards should be sent to the Chair of the 2006-2007 Award Committee, Joe Albert. Please send nominations to him at albertjd@jmu.edu. The awards will be presented at the 2007 IRES sponsored AsRES Conference in Macau, China in July 2007.

This edition of the IRES Update includes further details of the conference together with details of the activities of the sister regional societies.
