

GWIRE session at the 2024 AsRES Conference

Post Event Summary

7:30-9:00 AM 07/27/2024

Moderator: Prof. Shu-Mei Chen,
Kun Shan University / Tainan City Government

The purpose of the event

- This year's session will focus on the unique perspectives and experiences of female scholars in the field. We aim to discuss not only women's invaluable work and research but also the broader social concerns and sustainable environmental issues they address.
- Additionally, we hope to create a platform for sharing career experiences, discussing challenges faced by female researchers, and exploring opportunities for collaboration.
- This session is also aimed at providing valuable insights and guidance to young researchers.

The moderator: Shu-Mei Chen

- Professor, Kun Shan University
- Director-general, Land Administration Bureau of Tainan City Government
- The President of 2017 GCREC Conference

Panelist: Yang Yang

Assistant Professor of Real Estate at The Chinese University of Hong Kong.

Her research focuses on urban economics, real estate, and sustainability.

Panelist: Janet Ge

Associate Professor in the School of Built Environment (SBE), University of Technology Sydney.

Her research covers housing affordability, housing market, house prices, property development finance and investment, and the application of property technologies.

Panelist: Kwan Ok Lee

Associate Professor and Dean's Chair at the Business School at the National University of Singapore.

Her research areas: household residential choice, neighborhood dynamics, neighborhood effects, and housing affordability.

Panelist: Bing Zhu

Professor, Technische Universität
München

Her research areas: real estate development from economic and financial perspectives, real estate finance and real estate market.

Panelist: Paloma Taltavull de La Paz

Professor, University of Alicante

Her research areas: housing prices cycles, social housing, affordability and housing markets in European.

Agenda

1. “Managing early career challenges in academia” by Yang Yang, Chinese University of Hong Kong
2. “Built a network and get myself ready” by Xin Janet Ge, University of Technology Sydney
3. “Entering and Excelling in Mid-Career Academic Life” by Kwan Ok Lee, National University of Singapore
4. “Interdisciplinary Research and Collaboration” by Bing Zhu, Technische Universität München
5. “Recent news in academic publications” by Paloma Taltavull de La Paz, University of Alicante

The attendee geographic demographics

There are 28 female scholars from around the world.

Event photos

Event photos

Event photos

Event photos

Thank all of our panelists for their invaluable contributions. Their experiences and insights have greatly enriched our conversation, providing us with diverse perspectives and inspiring stories.

Everyone leaves this session feeling inspired and empowered by the discussions we've had. Together, we have made this session a success.

